

Brendan wants to eliminate all lockers in the hallway. Where will students whose lockers are removed put their jackets and school supplies? Nowhere, you will have to carry them.

VOTE JOE!

Adding three "analysis" classes sounds okay, but who will teach them? Forcing the school to hire new teachers for these unnecessary classes is going to put us in debt. The school will be forced to cut down heating even more than last year. At least students will already be carrying their jackets because they won't have lockers.

Cutting quiz and physics bowl to make room for boxing and paintball? What happened to raising the average IQ?